Monthly review:

- According to K. Snow Groveland Auto's lack of signing a lease has presented the department with sending a notice to the tenant. The Commissioners received a copy of the notice. Groveland Auto will now be a tenant at suffrage. The office will send a receipt when the next rent check comes in.
- K. Snow informed the Commissioners that Honeywell has given our department a new contact. The new manager from Merrimac, Ken Lamb signed the contract and our agreement with Merrimac remains the same. The contract stream lines the remote server from Honeywell. Our software will be upgraded and run with our old collectors first. Then the new collectors will come on one or two at a time. The total upgrade will cost $24,000.00. Next year it will only cost $11,000.00.
- K. Snow had given each Commissioner a copy of September 20, 2005 meeting minutes. Where it was discussed the voting in of a new chairman after each Town Meeting. A discussion ensued.
